

Retreat Leader: Reverend Cole Altizer

Cole is from Weddington, NC. He attended Brevard College and played on the tennis team for four years. Upon receiving his BA degree from Brevard, he attended The University of Alabama (ROLL TIDE!), where he received a Master of Arts degree in Higher Education Administration. While at Alabama, he earned his Licensed Local Pastor designation from the United Methodist Church. He then attended Emory University, Candler School of Theology in Atlanta, GA, where he received his Master of Divinity.

He has been involved in numerous ministries and higher education presentations and has received many honors such as being named the Selected Preacher for the Teaching Parish Worship at Candler Chapel in March of 2017. Currently, Cole is a commissioned Elder on the ordination track. He is passionate about serving the community he is appointed to in many different ways.

Cole and his wife, Lindsay, enjoy playing golf, watching Alabama football and playing music.

What does the Bible say about “Masculinity?”

What does it mean to be a “Man of God” in 2019?

During this retreat we will dive into conversations about these questions.

God has called each of us to be Men of God who are strong and courageous as well as

kind and compassionate; Men who care deeply and are willing to be a Christ-like example for all.

On the retreat, we will spend plenty of time watching some football, hiking, eating and relaxing... you're choice!

We will also spend time looking at Scripture and having conversations about what it means to practice
WHOLE-HEARTED COURAGE*

“He has told you,
O man,
what is good and
what the Lord
requires from you:
to do justice,
embrace faithful
love, and walk humbly with your God.”

-Micah 6:8
